I declare, that

I do not continuously apply for the same taxable period nor even for the same calendar month of the taxable period

- claim on a tax exemption pursuant Section 35ba of the Act by another taxable person, and that I currently did not sign the tax declaration³⁾ by another taxable person for the same taxable period;
- tax benefit⁴⁾ for the maintained child by another taxable person, and that another person does not apply the tax benefit for the same maintained child for the same taxable period, nor even for the same calendar month of the taxable period;

If there will be during the taxable period any change of facts important for the tax advance calculation and for tax or if there will be any change of conditions for providing tax exemptions pursuant Section 35ba of the Act, or tax benefit, I will literally notify it to the taxable person (e.g. by change in the declaration) on the last day of the calendar month at the least, in which the change occurred.

I am aware of the consequences, if this declaration would not correspond to a truth and I am aware of that the difference from the incorrectly deducted tax advance or income tax by individuals from dependant activity and function benefits and the tax benefit on my fault will be deducted from my wage in the full amount including attribution.

I mention below the changes, that occurred during the taxable period:
