In this Attachment, provide income form the Czech Republic as well as income from sources in abroad converted into CZK. For the purpose of this Act, income from abroad shall mean income from sources in a foreign country minus related expenses pursuant to the Act. Expenses are to be given in their actual amount or as a percentage of the income. Pursuant to Section 25, Subsection 1, Letter i) of the Act (Section 2, Subsection 2 of the Act), expenses incurred to generate, assure and maintain income exempt under the Double Taxation Agreement must not exceed such income. Deductible items and items reducing the tax base shall not be taken into account in ascertaining the tax base.

In order to prevent double taxation pursuant to Section 38f of the Act, Section 38 shall be applied as follows to convert foreign currency into CZK:

- If you keep accountancy, apply the same exchange rates for foreign currency as declared by the Czech National Bank for accounting purposes.
- If you do not keep accountancy and if you do not apply the same exchange rates for foreign currency as declared by the Czech National Bank for accounting purposes, apply the single exchange rate pursuant to Section 38, Subsection 1 of the Act.

Provide the amounts in whole CZK. Figures used to calculate the tax liability are considered to be indicators pursuant to Section 146 of the Act on Administration of Taxes, and are to be rounded to two decimal points. Sequential rounding in two or more stages is forbidden.
